In order to contribute to realizing the PUIC objectives, informing the general public about the PUIC as well as highlighting the activities carried out by the various PUIC organs, the General Secretariat of the Union publishes a quarterly called the (PUIC), considered as one of the mechanisms of information action which we intend to pursue. Latest version of our Bulletin is available on the PDF format on the first page of the website.

PUIC Bulletin:

For easier access to our Member Parliaments, Observers and non-PUIC Muslim Parliaments we have published a "Parliaments Directory" containing brief information about the above mentioned legislative bodies and organizations. The publication of the first issue of the Directory received a good response by our readers. No doubt we welcome comments from our readers and ask their assistance in getting the latest developments about their legislatures.

Parliaments Directory:

We are pleased to mention that the General Secretariat will publish special anniversary issues of the "PUIC" to mark the passage of years since the establishment of the Parliamentary Union of the OIC Member States on 17 June 1999. Issues will include interviews with the presidents of the PUIC Conferences reflecting their ideas on the progress and aspirations of the Union. It will also include interviews with observers. We have already published a tenth anniversary issue.

PUIC: AN ISLAMIC PARLIAMENTARY FORUM

On June 17th, 1999, members of parliaments from forty-four Muslim States met in Tehran, Islamic Republic of Iran. This Founding Conference decided to establish the Parliamentary Union of the OIC Member States (PUIC) with headquarters in Tehran. If we are to classify these founding fathers according to the approved geographical groups, we will have the following arrangement: African (12), Arab (20), and Asian (10), plus Albania (Europe) and Guyana (South America). Now the PUIC membership has risen to (51) Parliaments from across the Muslim World. There are also (14) observers. There are strong hopes that more parliaments/assemblies will accede to the Union in the near future. The PUIC has several organs, namely, Conference, Council, Executive Committee and General Secretariat. There are also three Standing Specialized Committees. The PUIC has several objectives which include: Introducing and disseminating the noble principles of Islam; Enhancing and supporting the implementation of the Islamic principle of consultation (Shoora) in all OIC Member States; Providing a framework for comprehensive and fruitful cooperation and coordination among parliaments of OIC members in international fora and organizations; Promoting meeting and dialogue among parliaments of OIC members and their deputies; Strengthening contacts, cooperation and coordination with other parliamentary, governmental and non-governmental organizations with the aim of advancing common objectives and Fostering coordination among peoples of the world in order to respect and defend human rights and humanitarian principles, and The establishment of peace based on justice. The working languages of the PUIC are Arabic, English and French.
